1. Name and outline the 3 aspects of man's nature discussed in lesson 3 from both the Biblical and Naturalist worldviews?

2. What is the "Pernicious lie"? What are the consequences of this? Why might this give rise to a hostility towards Christianity?

3. Develop a brief explanation for the existence of evil from a Christian perspective?

4. In what manner is the naturalist's concern with evil an inconsistency with the naturalistic worldview?

5. How might a person's understanding of human nature and the meaning of human life determine his or her behavior or lifestyle? Given the basic distinctions between biblical and man-centered (naturalistic) anthropology, how would we expect a believer's behavior to differ from that of a non-believer?

6. How do differing views of mankind play into the social struggles and conflicts we see in our culture today?

7. Is there any credibility to Maslow's hierarchy of needs and self-actualization? If so, how does a Christian balance the competing interests of self-actualization with call for redemption & transformation?
