1. If Theology (the study of God) is the most important of the three foundations we are seeking to lay, why was it put aside until the fourth tour? What does this imply about our culture and our calling as modern ambassadors for Christ?

2. What does R.C. Sproul mean when he says that the knowledge of God has not been destroyed but eclipsed in our day? How has this come about? Do you have examples of this from your own experience?

3. "This is eternal life," says Jesus, "that they may know You, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom You have sent" (John 17:3) Why do you think Jesus defines eternal life this way? What is the connections between knowledge and life?

4. Why is it important to establish that a "spiritual" book like the Bible is also historically accurate?
